

Steve has been one of the main pillars/mainstays of Alpine Chapel, for many years. He wore many successful hats, keeping many operations up and running -- and quite smoothly! In addition to his many office/admin capabilities, he maintained many of the intricate communications processes and communiqués of the church; directed most of the church services and coordinated (and participated in) the worship team. He was an absolutely valuable asset to the church.

- Mark Hilbrink